Dear Leslie,
I hope you have a tremendous time this summer and all the luck in the world in the future. Keep your dedication, there are very few people as willing to work a good cause in this world. Much luck always Best of luck always
To a dedicated worker

A handwritten note on yellowed paper. At the top left, "Leslie" is written in cursive. The main body of the note is a large, flowing cursive message to "Tessie". It reads: "Tessie, My Dad and Mom and Dad know you we know you are good. You success in every aspect of your life. Wish you all the best in all you do. Have a wonderful life. Love, Renzo C. Lepman". A large, stylized drawing of a heart is centered on the page, with the name "Tessie" written vertically along its left side. The bottom right corner features a signature that appears to be "Renzo C. Lepman". The bottom left corner has the word "present" and a small "id." followed by a large, stylized signature that looks like "Vog".

DEDICA

Best Wishes to Leslie and Jewell Engel

Mr. Engel, an enthusiastic and talented wrestler, was captain of the Lehigh University wrestling team.

We can all associate with this familiar situation: Mr. Engel seated at his desk, always willing to talk with everyone.

Mr. Engel's first teaching job in Stamford was as a Math teacher in Cloonan Junior High School. (1934)

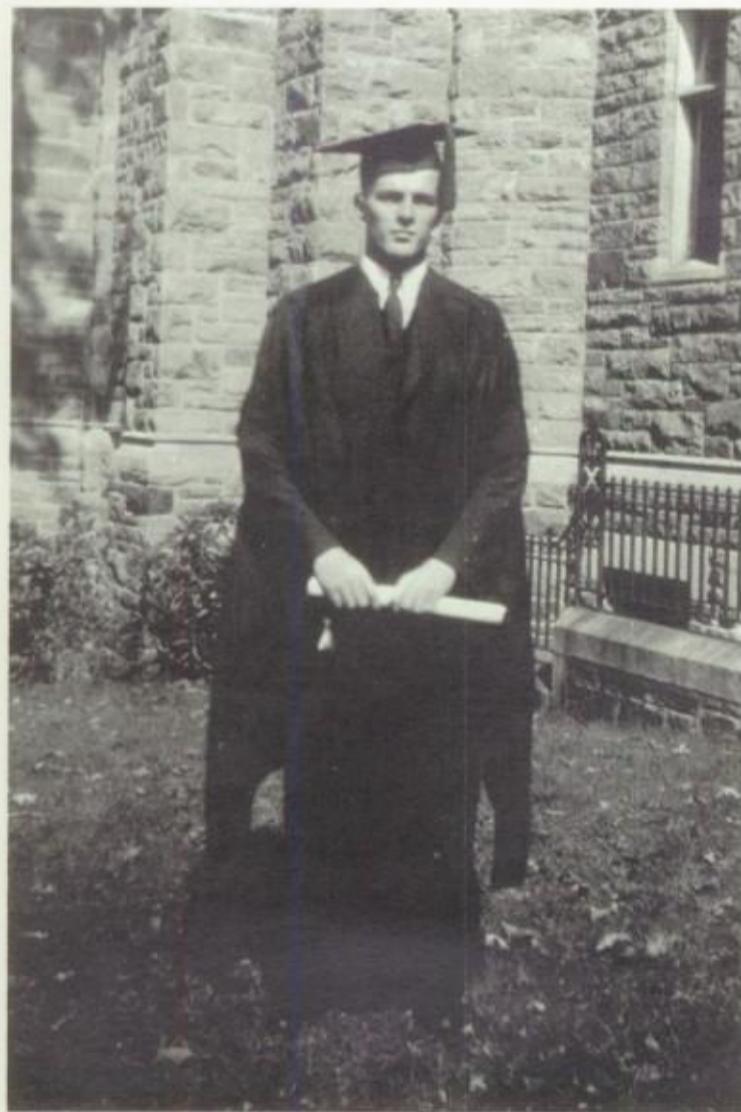

Mr. Engel's involvement and interest in his students extend far beyond the normal school day, as is shown by his presence at this Senior Prom in 1966.

TION

It is with pride that we dedicate Riptide 1970 to our principal, John A. Engel. Throughout his nine years as assistant principal and principal of Rippowam, his inspiration, efforts, and dedication have made Rippowam one of the finest high schools in the state.

During World War II Mr. Engel served as a Lieutenant in the United States Navy Pre-Flight Schools.

Mr. Engel at his graduation from Lehigh University in 1931.

A highlight of Mr. Engel's career was his appointment as an international judge and referee in both Greco-Roman and free style wrestling. In this capacity he served as a referee in the 1960 Olympics in Rome.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Graduates:

The theme of "Direction" for the 1970 Rippowam yearbook is, indeed, a provocative one. We all go in one direction or another, right or wrong, as we travel through life. The direction we take influences not only our own lives, but all those with whom we come in contact. Therefore, that we travel in the right direction is of crucial concern not only to ourselves but to others.

May each of you in the graduating class make a meaningful contribution to our society by following the right direction that will bring you and others success and personal fulfillment.

MESSAGE

John and I offer you condolences on Afro. History and we wish you great future success.

The journey of a thousand miles begins with one step.—Laotsye Graduation from high school is a time for each one of you to reflect on where you have been and where you are going. In these turbulent and changing times, choosing the direction in which you now wish to go is no easy task, but one which you, and you alone, must face.
It is my sincere hope that in your last few years here at Rippowam your minds and bodies have been trained and toughened, your interests and talents nurtured and challenged, and your horizon extended in many directions. And as you now proceed along various paths toward your individual goals, I wish for each one of you the peace, happiness and measure of success you so earnestly seek and deserve.

Our world.
We were moved through

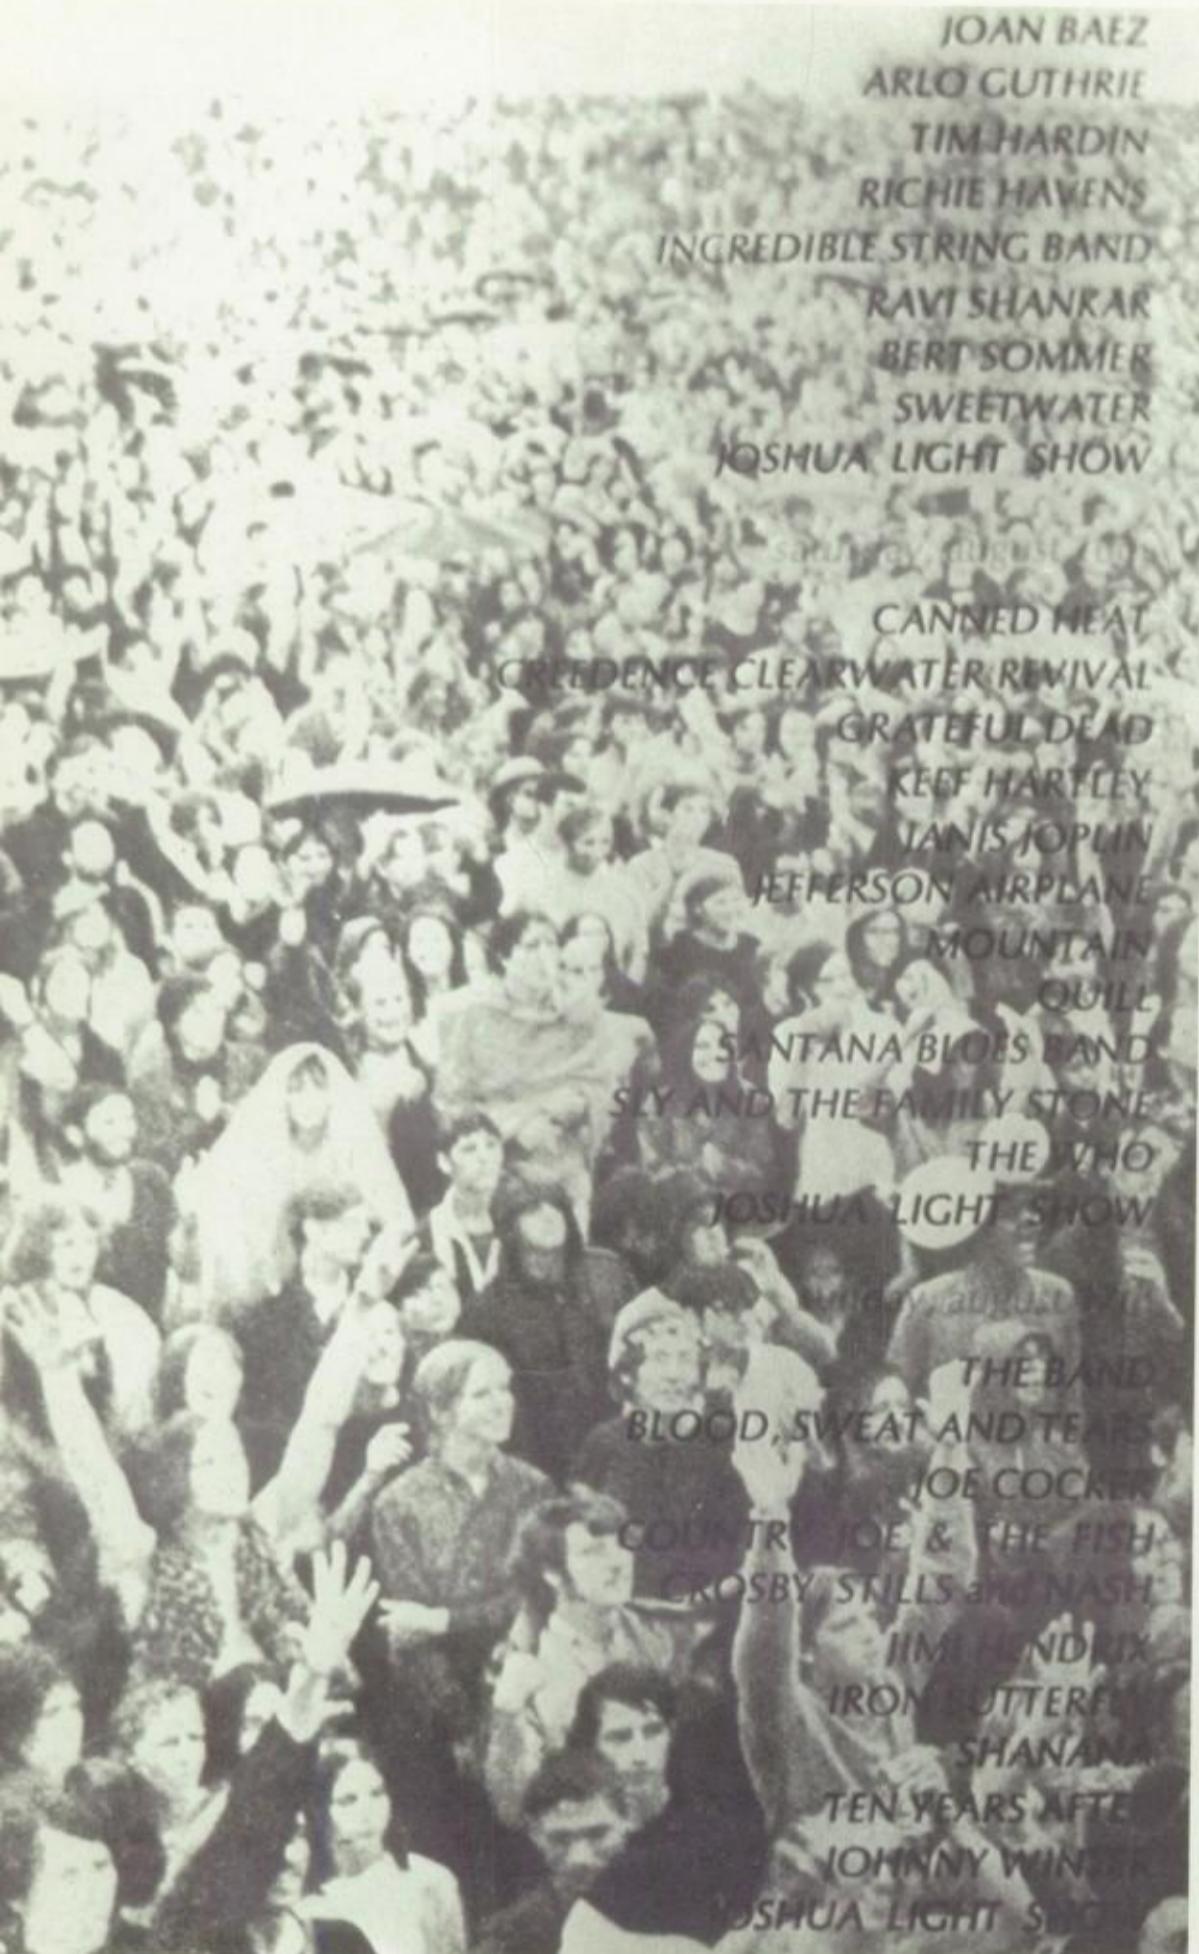

We moved
And we were moved by

The books we read,

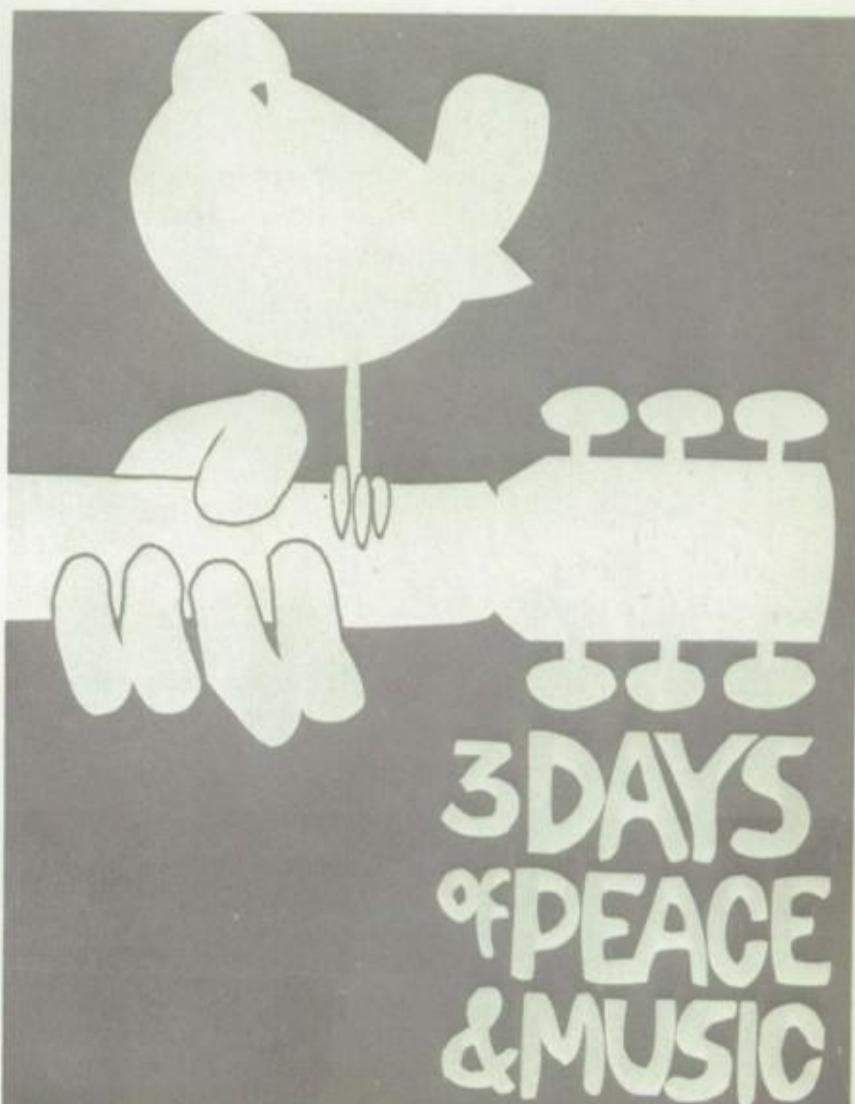

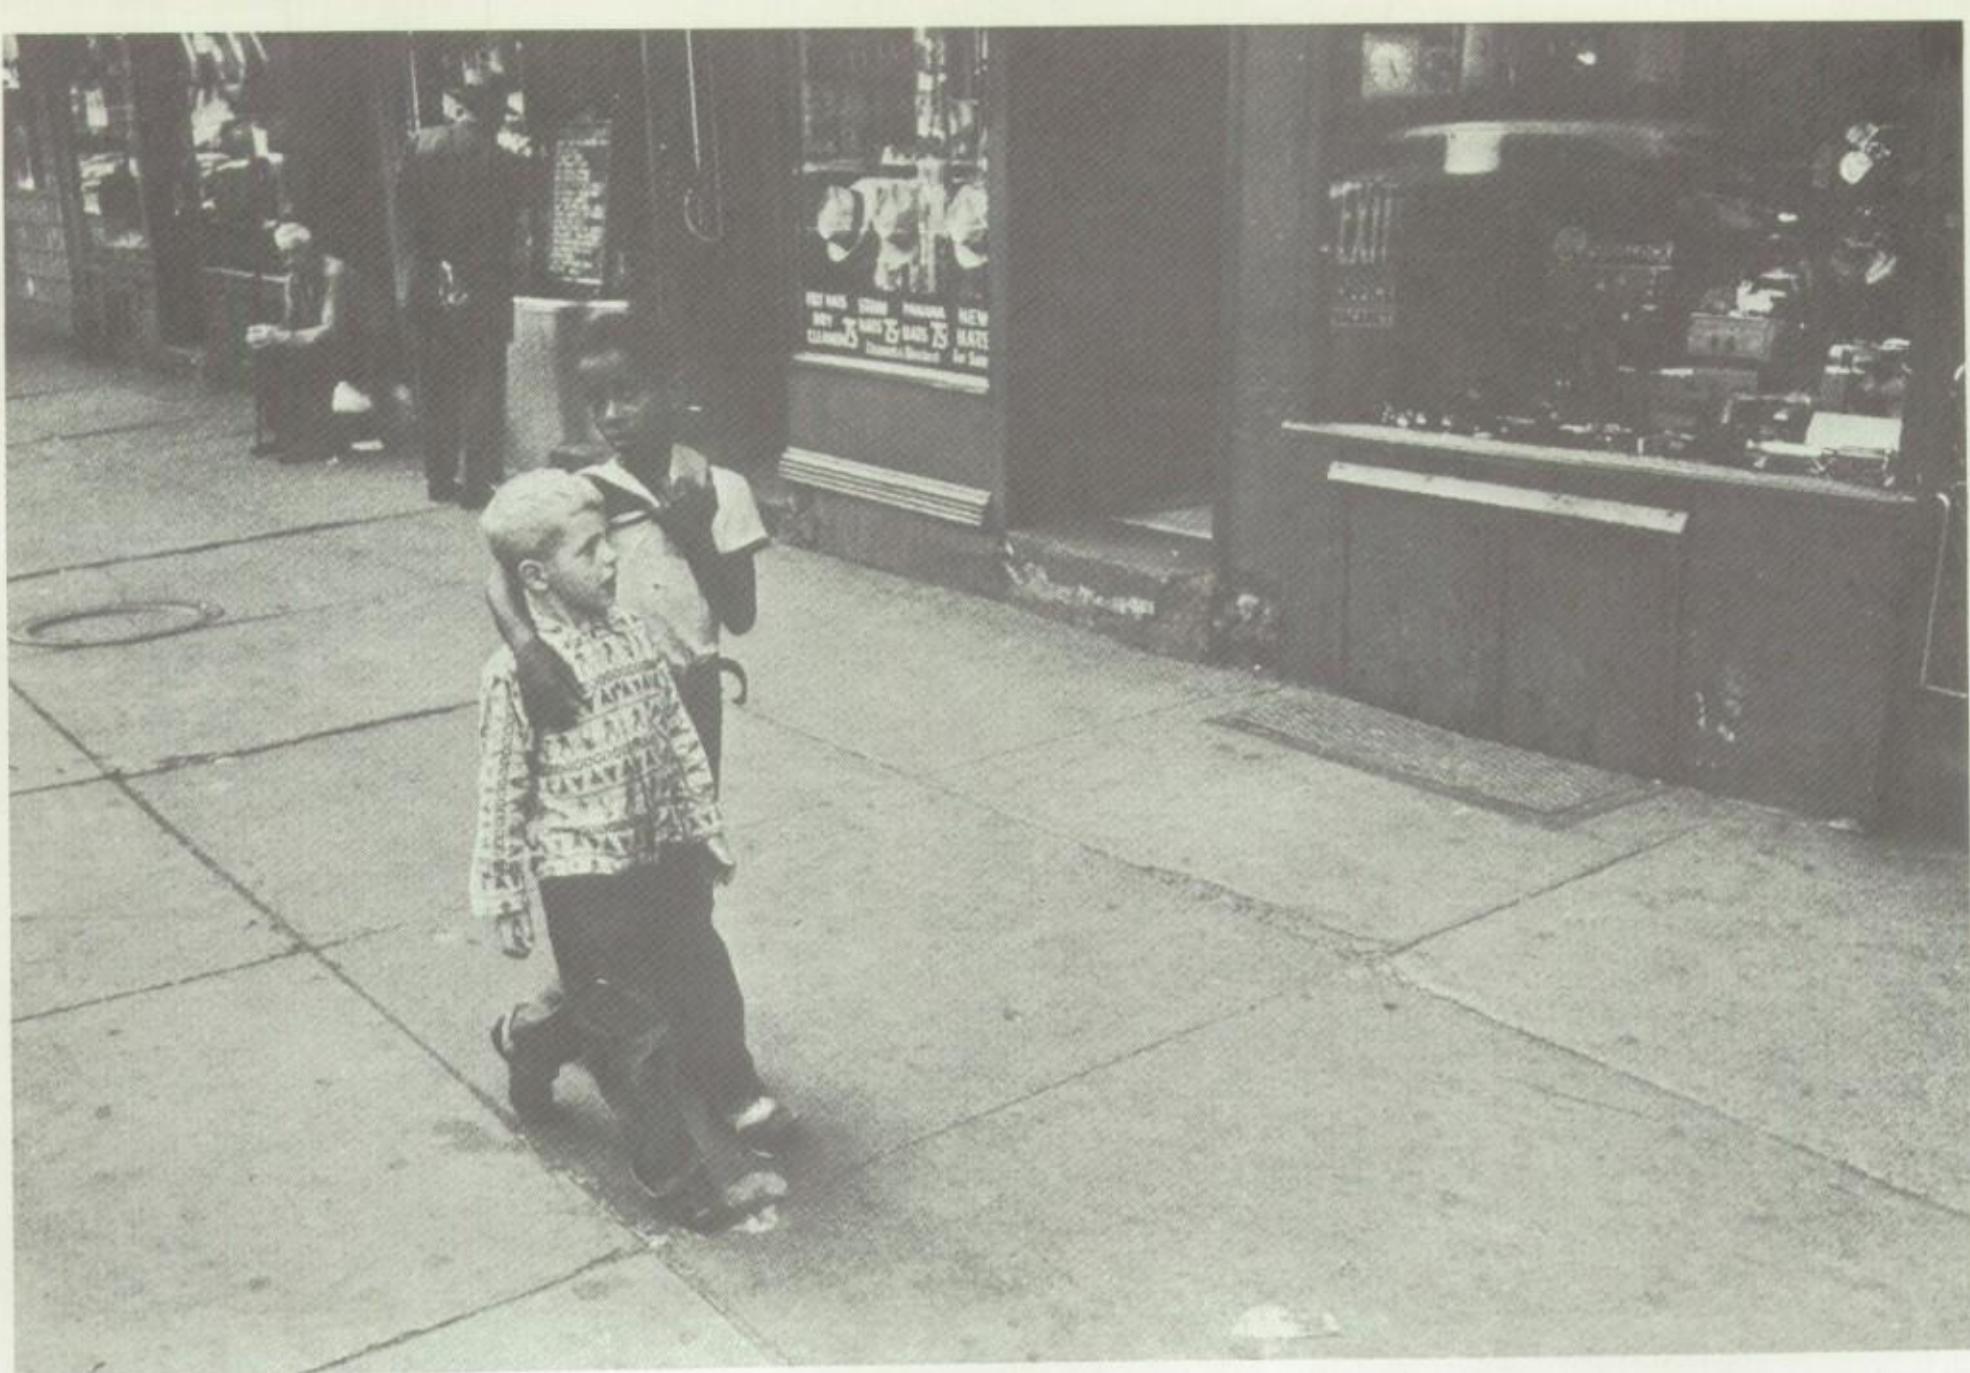

And didn't read.
The social comment:
Seen, Heard,
And Felt.

In peace
With each other,
Without restriction.

We moved
And we were moved by Ourselves.
We were moved to
The throb of 400,000 people

GO MOD

We moved
And we were moved by
Our life styles.
We were moved toward Brotherhood
And Beauty
In all forms and fashions.

We moved. And we were moved by Our goals. Into a new awakening awareness.

We moved
And we were moved by
Our conscience.
We were moved against Established doctrine and dogma
Guiding our lives,
And toward an era
Of new responsibility.

We moved
And we were moved by Our opinions
We were moved with

The currents, the tides
Of hectic campaigns.

We moved
And we were moved by . . .

Dear Jessie, There is so much to say about the last year - I can't put it all down. Keep looking for beauty. Peace

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS

Admitting that ours was a "definitely unusual" class, our advisors, Mr. Michael Culhane and Miss Mary Durkee, guided us with wisdom and patience which have helped our class more than anything else. Because they believe that experience combined with temperate wisdom teaches best, our advisors had the faith in us to let us work our way out of our own mistakes while providing quiet direction and understanding. They were willing to let us experiment with new ideas while their tolerance and dedication acted as a steady influence upon us. They call their work a "non-paying job with all the pay in the world". We can never pay them enough for making themselves so much a part of the Class of 1970.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

From the very beginning, the Class of 1971 was destined to succeed. As sophomores we proved to be one of the most spirited classes ever in Rippowam. We displayed our athletic ability and class unity when we defeated the Class of 1970 in the Junior-Sophomore basketball game by a score of 54-45. Before we knew it the year was almost over. The last function we held as sophomores was the Sophomore Hop where Sally Santa-maria and Jeff Martinik reigned as King and Queen.

Suddenly, September was upon us again. We began our junior year with the election of class officers. Dave Wolfe was elected President; Dick Hermann, Vice-President; Linda Di-vasto, Secretary; Joe McCann, Treasurer; and Heather Briggs, Historian. Our first project was the Christmas Dance, held December 13th, which was an overwhelming success. To further build up our treasury, we sold Rippowam key chains with "RHS" printed on them. Sadie Hawkins—a Junior Class tradition—brought out all the "country" in Rippowam. Corn cob pipes and overalls characterized Dogpatch, U.S.A.

Many juniors received recognition for outstanding ability and service. Among them were: Saul Goodman, Student Council Treasurer, who won the Charles Bowes Memorial Award for Outstanding Leadership at the Connecticut Federation of Student Councils' 1969 Summer Workshop. Donna Pelter was the first junior to be elected Co-Editor of Rip's school newspaper, the Totem Pole.

Well, I made it through Mr. Ray's class this year thanks to your encouragement and advice. Hope you have a wonderful summer and good luck in the school next year. The Literary Magazine was also edited by juniors: John Macioce and Jeff Sharlach. Barb Hix and Mitch Weisburg were selected to represent Rippowam in the Americans Abroad Program, and Mitch hosted an exchange student, Raúl Filman, from Chile. Niki Hoagland won Honorable Mention for French and Debbie Brandstater for Spanish in the 1969 Iona College Language Contest.

Ellen Watta In sports, Rodney Bass was chosen captain of the basketball team, the first junior to hold this position in Rippowam's history. Our Homecoming attendant was Sally Santamaria.

Our junior year ended all too quickly and before we knew it, it was Prom time. After months of planning, the Prom met our every expectation.

With anticipation and energetic plans, the Class of 1971 looks forward to their Senior year.

JUNIOR CLASS ADVISORS

The history of the Junior Class would not be complete without a big thank-you to Mrs. Elizabeth Dolan and Mr. Robert King, the two dedicated Junior Class advisors. They have given selflessly of their time, energy, and experience in order to help develop the Class of 1971 into a successful, involved group of students.

The Junior Class members sincerely hope that the guidance and direction provided by Mrs. Dolan and Mr. King will inspire them to even greater heights of achievement and spirit when they return as Seniors next year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

We entered Rippowam from numerous directions in September. Now we have a year of experiences behind us. Mrs. Poagie Murray and Mr. Michael Nagurney, our class advisors, helped us get organized. Then, with the election of our class officers, President, Michael Vaccaro; Vice President, Donald Ehnebusk; Secretary, Kim Heatley, and Treasurer, Mark Wolfe, we became a working, unified class.

We selected a banner, mascot, and graduating colors, brown and gold. Our candy drive in February helped us raise money for the class organization. And finally our spring Sophomore Hop was a phenomenal success.

We eagerly look ahead to the exciting events and challenges of the next two years at Rippowam.

SOPHOMORE ADVISORS

Special Thanks

... to our Sophomore Advisors, Mrs. Murray and Mr. Nagurney. Describing their class as "concerned, aware, and involved," they prefer to play a passive role as advisors, offering gentle guidance.

Although their job is a demanding one, the rewards they receive from helping the class with special problems make it all worthwhile.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

D. Ehnebushe, V. Pres.; M. Vacarro, Pres.; M. Wolfe, Treas.

SOPHOMORE CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

Leslie,

Next year and afterward good luck in the 3 R's
Reading Writing and the Revolution.

Stayedans

Peace

Rob Stockgaard

Leslie - Since Rob took my space above, I shall write below. From 7th Grade with Mr. Ryba (remember?) to Creative writing this year, we shall always remain friends. Keen in touch,

luv, Mike Woll

Letter to Doug Tillson

Dear Doug:

Six years ago, we didn't know each other very well.

You were fresh out of Norwalk Tech, had done a little drafting, weren't sure where your future was. But you were bright and ambitious. We took a chance and hired you.

We were Stamford's largest employer and getting bigger, spawning new products, making new jobs. You wanted a future . . . but in a big company, a guy could get stuck in a dead-end job and forgotten. Still, there was our training offer—learn the ropes, pick your own field, move ahead at your own speed. So you took a chance.

Today, we know each other better.

"Inventive . . . ingenious . . . persistent" your boss calls you. With a knack for solving problems, getting people on the team. That's why you've become one of our best (and youngest) foremen, supervising 42 production people at PB's fast-growing Copier Products Division in Norwalk.

In these six years, you've learned that when we said "training opportunity," we meant it. Right now, we have an even broader range of jobs, more training opportunities than when you began. Not just on-the-job stuff, but real classroom instruction, all the way from machine operation and technical training to toolmaking, modelmaking and design.

Why do we train people? Simply because their skills and contributions are the real key to the company's success. That's something we've both learned.

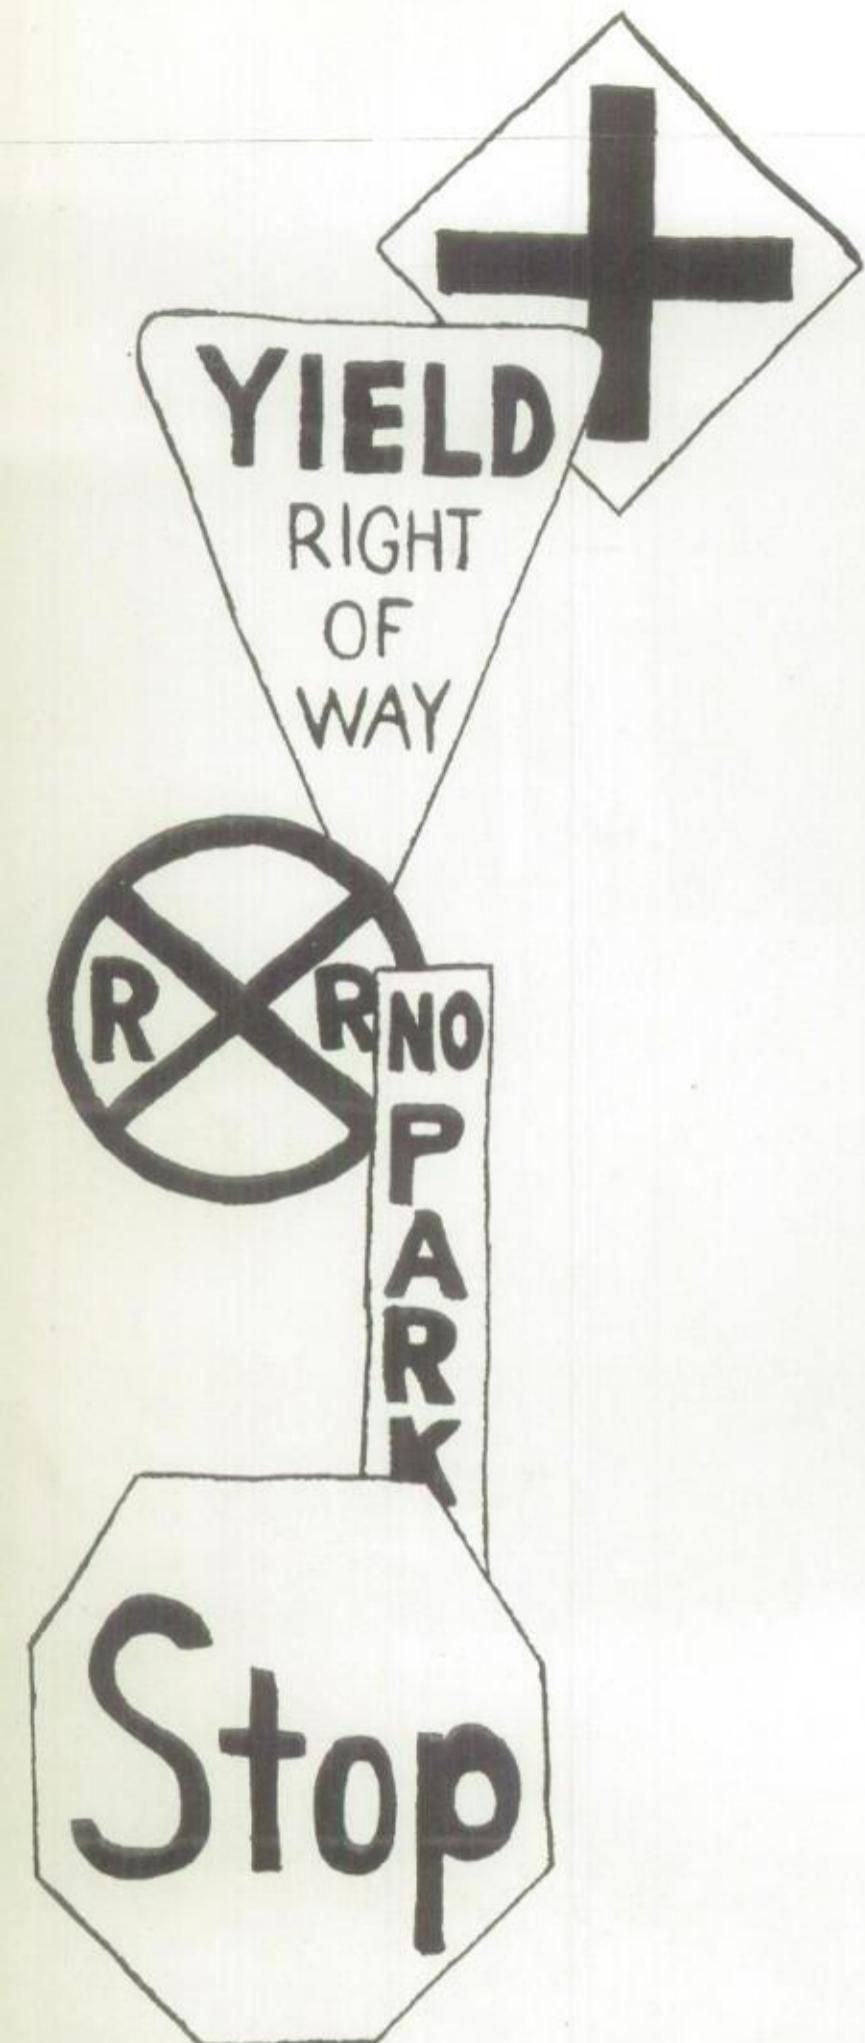

So thanks, Doug, for taking a chance with us. It's worked out fine. And if you'd like to do us another favor . . . pass the word along that PB's doors in Norwalk and Stamford are still wide open to ambitious young men and women who want to learn and grow on the job. We'll help them shape their future—if they'll help us shape ours.
